

Application

Mission

Dedicated to cultural equity and sustainable art careers, PFF is more than a studio building—It's a supportive community. Housing artists, cultural producers, writers, arts non-profit organizations and professionals under one roof, PFF hosts professional development workshops, creative events, and screenings, and fosters opportunity for those underserved in the arts.

Membership Benefits and Requirements

Included in your rental fee

Benefits*:

- Free and discounted workshop and event tickets
- Shared daytime access to the FlexSpace for lunch events, rehearsals, etc.
- Priority public event space usage
- Kitchen access
- WiFi & Utilities

*(some restrictions apply)

Requirements:

- ~10 hours/month of shared work (could include painting walls, cleaning, website updates, community hosting, event planning, org meetings and leadership, grant writing, etc.)
- Respecting fellow members & shared space
- Following House Rules (to be provided upon acceptance of application)

Application Checklist

- Completed Questionnaire
- CV
- Artist Statement
- 1-page of images with caption information
- Credit Report

Selection Criteria

Our selection priorities will be based primarily on the following criteria:

- Potential contribution to our mission
- Demonstration of community service or engagement
- Commitment to your career in the arts
- Quality of work
- Economic and urgency of need for reduced cost space

PFF Application Questionnaire

Name

URL/Online Portfolio

--	--

Mailing Address

--

Email

Phone

--	--

Why do you want to join PFF? Describe your need and how you or your work fits our mission and criteria—namely our commitment to cultural equity and fostering opportunities for those underserved in the arts.

When answering, please consider the selection criteria listed above.

--

What do you hope to get out of your membership and the shared community of PFF?

--

What do you have to offer the PFF community?

--